

Specifications

LEGIS League hunter/jumper categories are not additional classes, but classes already offered by the competition. LEGIS League registered riders receive points based on results in those classes. Riders earn points to qualify for LEGIS League Finals held in different locations. Riders must earn at least four points to compete in any LEGIS League Final.

Horsemanship Sections

Points are earned on a horse/rider combination. Sections may include both hunter and equitation classes.

Mini Child/Adult Horsemanship 2'0"

Open to junior and amateur riders who have not competed in any classes with fences higher than 2'6" in the current competition year. Fences 2'0".

Intro Rider Horsemanship

Open to beginner riders who have not competed in any class with fences higher than 2'0" during the current show year. Courses to consist of cross rails or verticals no higher than 18". No combinations or spreads. Trotting is allowed if specified in prize list.

Walk/Trot Horsemanship

Open to child and adult riders who have never competed in over fences classes prior to the current show year. In the current year riders cannot compete in classes with fences over 18". Classes may consist of both Pleasure and Equitation classes. Shows may include classes to be judged over a course of poles. Pole classes must be ridden at the trot.

Points

Points will be awarded to sixth place in each category as follows: 7-5-4-3-2-1. At least three must compete. Points will be awarded on this scale regardless of the number of entries in the class. In the case of a combined class (i.e.: Children's/Adult Hunter), points will be awarded according to the ribbon won and applied to the rider's age group (Children's or Adult). Any horse shown by a LEGIS League member will accrue points. Riders must earn at least four points to compete in any LEGIS League Final.

Membership

Riders are encouraged to join the LEGIS League prior to competition and may join at the competition for points to count. Once a member joins, points will be retroactive a maximum of 30 days.
